

PRESS RELEASE

Quickspin enters into strategic partnership with GTS

Video slot producer Quickspin has signed a multiyear agreement with Game Technology Solutions (GTS). The agreement will enable some of the world's largest gambling operators to access games developed by Quickspin.

"We are delighted to have entered into a strategic partnership with GTS. The GTS Enhanced Gaming Engine (EdGE) platform has a proven track record allowing us to offer our games to a very wide range of casino players", says Daniel Lindberg, CEO at Quickspin.

Quickspin's Rapunzel's Tower as well as Goldilocks and the Wild bears are currently being integrated into the platform, with Rapunzel's Tower expected to be available to operators during the third quarter of 2012. Quickspin will on an ongoing basis offer GTS licensees new and high quality video slots comprising state of the art game design, innovative features and stunning graphics.

Rapunzel's Tower and Goldilocks and the Wild Bears have already received critical acclaim through the partnership with Plumbee which has seen the games being played by over 1 million Facebook users in the Mirrorball Slots application.

GTS is a leading global supplier of gaming solutions for the online gaming market, wholly owned by Playtech, the world's largest publicly-traded online game software supplier. GTS' EdGE platform is integrated into some of the world's largest gambling operators such as Unibet, Betsson, Sportingbet, Gala Coral and 888. Steve Schrier, Commercial Director at GTS says; "For us it is important to ensure that our licensees can access the best games available on the market. With Quickspin's existing games portfolio and proven track-record of developing games, we are looking forward to see their games go live".

Daniel Eskola, Head of Gaming at Unibet says "Unibet strives to offer casino games of the highest quality from multiple suppliers. We look forward to adding the Quickspin games to our current offering and feel confident that our players will enjoy them."
